

2010 Polling Place Changes

July 7, 2010

The Board of Elections for New Castle County approved the following polling place changes effective for the 2010 Elections at its meetings on June 1 and July 6, 2010.

ELECTION DISTRICT/S	CURRENT POLLING PLACE	PROPOSED POLLING PLACE	REASON FOR CHANGE
02-02	Girls Inc – Kiwanis Branch	Crestview Apartments	Return to previous location. Girls Inc facility is closed.
04-02; 09-02	Grace United Methodist Church	Connections Community Support Programs, Inc	Church no longer available
06-04	Lincoln Towers	Delaware Center for Horticultural	Lincoln Towers being torn down
08-04; 09-04; 15-04	Lewis Elementary School	Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Church	Parking and accessibility issues
01-07; 11-07	Brandywood Elementary School	Brandywine Town Center Community Room	School overcrowded, no room for Primary ¹
07-07; 11-10	Darley Road Elementary School	Boys and Girls Club	Name change only, same physical location
12-07	Hanby Middle School	Brandywine Hundred Public Library	Hanby has been torn down
06-08	Townsend Fire Company	Townsend Elementary School	Roof collapse and unknown construction schedule
02-10	Brandywine Town Center Community Building	Springer Middle School	Return to pre-2008 location
09-10	Lancashire Elementary School ²	Concord Christian Academy	Traffic at beginning and end of school day limits voter access ¹
02-11	Brandywine District Offices	Claymont Community Center	Building no longer available
04-11	Brandywine Hundred Library	Springer Middle School	Return to pre-2008 location
05-13	5 Points Fire Hall	Richardson Park United Methodist Church	Fire Hall is no longer available
05-15; 06-15	Red Lion Evangelical Church	Porter Road Elementary School	Church is no longer available

¹ Department policy is that the polling place used for the Primary is used for the General Election except in the most exceptional situations.

² The Board changed the polling place from Concord Christian Academy back to Lancashire on June 1, but upon further review the Department determined that the Polling Place for 9-10 should remain at Concord Christian Academy.