“TWO POLLING PLACES HAVE CHANGED FOR THE UPCOMING JANUARY 13, 2011 SPECIAL ELECTION,” ACCORDING TO ANTHONY ALBENCE, DIRECTOR OF THE DEPARTMENT OF ELECTIONS FOR NEW CASTLE COUNTY.

“The Department has moved the three election districts that vote at the Latin American Community Center to Los Jardines, 1000 West 5th Street in Wilmington. We also have moved the two districts that vote at the Claymore Senior Center to the Maplewood Apartments located at 501 South Rodney Street in Wilmington,” he said.

“These changes are for this election only. All registered voters in these districts will be sent a Notice, and we also will have signs posted on the original buildings directing voters to these new sites. Special Elections occur very quickly and we realize that facilities may have other events already scheduled. We are grateful that our other locations were able to accommodate us with such short notice,” concluded Mr. Albence.
