“THE DEPARTMENT OF ELECTIONS IS SOLICITING COMMENTS ON PROPOSED ELECTION DISTRICTS AND POLLING PLACES,” ACCORDING TO ANTHONY ALBENCE, THE DEPARTMENT’S DIRECTOR.

“The Department of Elections is soliciting comments on proposed Election Districts and Polling Places for use in New Castle County starting with the 2012 Primary Election. Maps showing the proposed Election Districts and a list of proposed Polling Places are on the Department’s Web Site at: <http://electionsncc.delaware.gov/2012redist.shtml>, “ according to Albence.

“Copies of maps with the proposed Election Districts and a list of the proposed Polling Places are also available in the Department’s offices from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. each business day through April 30, 2012,” he said.

“The Department will accept written comments suggesting changes to Election District boundaries and proposed Polling Places until April 30 at 4:30 p.m. Comments must include the reason for the proposed change as well as the name, phone number and/or email address of the person submitting the suggestion. Citizens may submit comments in-person, by mail and by email (votencc@state.de.us),” he said.

“The Board of Elections will approve the Election Districts and proposed polling places at its meeting on May 10, 2012,” he said.
