

VOTE 2012

A News Release Issued by the Department of Elections for New Castle County, DE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
August 15, 2012

Contact: Anthony Albence
(302) 577-3464

“SATURDAY, AUGUST 18, IS THE LAST DAY TO REGISTER TO VOTE BEFORE THE SEPTEMBER 11, 2012 PRIMARY ELECTION, ACCORDING TO ANTHONY ALBENCE, DIRECTOR OF THE DEPARTMENT OF ELECTIONS FOR NEW CASTLE COUNTY.”

“Anyone needing to register to vote should take identification on Saturday to any open public library in New Castle County, the Hilltop Lutheran Neighborhood House, The Greater Newark Boys and Girls Club, or our office in the Carvel State Building at 820 North French Street in Wilmington” according to Albence. “You can also fill out a voter registration application online at our website at <http://electionsncc.delaware.gov>, but you still need to print it, sign it and put it in the mail to complete the process. We are not permitted to make any additions or changes without a signature,” he said.

“You can also submit a change of address or name to us either online or at one of the libraries, but current voters may not change political party affiliation until after the Primary. Delaware is a closed primary state and only those registered as Republicans and Democrats will be eligible to vote on September 11th”, he said.